an equal opportunity employer and provider

RISE AND SHINE!

As a part of Iowa Soil & Water Conservation Week, a morning of cover crops, coffee.

WHEN

Friday, May 2
8 - 10 AM

WHERE

O'Hara Farm
1526 190th St.
Shenandoah

Hear why Page County Farmer, Jim O'Hara is using cover crops on his field for the first time and how long term cover crop user Kelly Tobin makes them work on his farm.

Governor Terry Branstad, Lieutenant Governor Kim Reynolds and Secretary of Agriculture Bill Northey to speak on the value of agriculture and cover crops to the state of Iowa.

Hosted by Page County's West Tarkio Creek Watershed Project and the Iowa Water Quality Initiative

TAKE YOUR MORNING BREAK WITH US!

Page County SWCD will provide coffee and donuts

Questions? Contact Page SWCD at 712-542-5484 (x 120)

If you need accommodations, please notify Brandon Peaseby April 28, 2014 by calling 712-542-5484 (x120).